

Wind on the Hill

We will be looking at A.A. Milne for our Poet study.

We will use “The Boy, The Dog and The Sea” as our central text. able to describe the importance of family/friends and how they make you feel.

In History....

...we are learning about the lives of significant people in the past. We will be learning about Mary Anning and Mary Seacole.

KEY VOCABULARY

famous—someone or something that is very well known by a lot of people society—a group of persons who get together for a particular purpose or activity research—careful study and investigation for the purpose of discovering and explaining new knowledge prejudice—hatred or unfair treatment toward a person or group without cause or reason

In Geography....

...we are comparing the UK mainland with Kingston, Jamaica. We will be identifying human and physical features of the UK and Jamaica and creating maps of key features.

KEY VOCABULARY

physical feature—the study of the Earth's natural features, such as mountains, rivers, deserts and oceans human feature—something that is built by humans and would not have existed in nature without humans continents—the Earth's seven main divisions of land

urban—belonging to, or relating to, a town or city

rural—an open space of land that has few homes or other buildings, and not very many people

In Science...

we are learning about materials. We will be identifying, naming and comparing a variety of everyday materials.

KEY VOCABULARY

material—any substance that has a name stiff—the extent to which an object resists deformation in response to an applied force.

transparent—clear enough or thin enough to be seen through opaque—cannot be seen through and does not allow light to pass through it.

waterproof—something that keeps water out bending—to make something change its shape from straight to curved stretching—to lengthen or extend to the full length

squashing—to press, beat, or crush into a flat mass twisting—to bend or turn in opposite directions so that parts of this same thing are turned away from each other

In R.E

...We will be learning about special symbols and stories associated with worship across the key religions of Christianity, Buddhism, Sikhism, Hinduism, Islam and Judaism.

In Art...

....we will be learning about mark-making and sketching. We will focus on observational drawing as well as more expressive pieces. We will look at artists such as Paul Klee and Leonardo Da Vinci.

In Computing...

...we will be recognising the uses and features of information technology. We will discuss how to use information technology safely.

In Music...

...we are exploring South African Music. The children will perform their own music in this style.

In P.E. ...

....we are developing basic control skills including sending and receiving a ball. We will have two PE sessions each week, one of which will be with a sports coach.

In DT....

....we will be exploring mechanisms. The children will be creating their own products with wheels and axles.